Benjamin Katz

404-565-6870
www.benjaminakatz.com
bkatz237@gmail.com
714 Techwood Drive, Atlanta, GA

EDUCATION

Georgia Institute of Technology BS Industrial Design   June 2012 - Present
GPA 3.57

EXPERIENCE

Georgia Institute of Technology Undergraduate Research Assistant   January 2015 - Present
- Researching and developing modular circuit construction techniques for the development of production-ready e-textile garments.
- Developing a haptic mirror therapy glove to aid the treatment of a paretic limb after a stroke.

LG Electronics UX/UI Design Consultant   June 2014 - August 2014
- Designed an updated mobile TV remote app for LG's line of Smart+ TVs through sketches, wireframes, and clickable prototypes.
- Provided user experience strategy for Smart+ TVs interfaces via user personas and scenarios, affinity diagramming sessions, and usability testing.

Koncept Design Studio UX Design Intern   May 2014 - August 2014
- Introduced wireframing into company digital design process.
- Developed ten websites through sketching and wireframing.

Georgia Institute of Technology Graphic Designer, Student Assistant   May 2014 - August 2014
- Designed and implemented three campus-wide Georgia Tech sponsored graphics to promote improved student life and campus activites.
- Designed and developed student assistant handbook to increase efficiency of student eployees.
- Introduced use of project management software Trello in office to facilitate effective management of projects, jobs, and tasks.

SKILLS

2D	Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Sketching + Rendering, Arduino
3D	Solidworks, Keyshot, sewing, rapid prototyping, modeling
Equipment	Workshop tools, Laser cutter, Vacuum Former
Languages	Spanish (Intermediate)

RECOGNITION

IDSA, Georgia Tech Chapter Sophomore Representative   2013-2014

Georgia Tech President's Undergraduate Research Award   2015
- Research grant to develop modular circuit construction techniques for the development of production-ready e-textile garments.